> NEW YORK STOCK MAR-KET.

Market Active but Irregular.

NEW YORK, May 8, 2 p. m. The stock market opened very active, but irregular this morning and has continued feverish and active for half dozen stocks. Throughout the first hour New York Central was the leading weak stock, followed at a respectful distance by Lake Shore. The strongest stock on the list has been Northwestern, which has advanced over 1 per cent., with St. Paul also strong. Gould stocks continue strong, but quiet. The principal dealing this morning has been in Northwestern, St. Paul New York Control Laborates. St. Paul, New York Central, Lake Shore Union Pacific. New York Central was renewed this morning at 1; but loans were made as high as 1-16. Loaning rates for other stocks easy. At 11 o'clock the market was more quiet and firmer. The total sales for the first hour 122,000 shares
